

Los Angeles County Jail Study Summary:

Support for reducing overcrowding in jails. Oppose private jails. Support sentencing options for low-risk offenders. Support for health care both physical and mental. Support for educational and vocational training as well as social rehabilitation. Support for re-entry programs. Support for public funding. Support for effective oversight of jail conditions and practices including safe release practices.